Designer Notes

My concept, which uses no artistic values at all, uses a color palette that starts off with red, white and blue! From there, it utilizes several lighter shades of blue, representing the color of Antarctic ice. It's also the color you turn after several hours of hunting the little critters that are turned into chops and burgers.

There is one 'ice-covered font, representing Antarctica - 'the ice'. The other fonts will be chosen for their readability.
